Description

Located in the middle of Villaricos this lovely and high quality two bed and two bathroom duplex is a little gem. It holds one balcony and two terraces of which one has sea views.

The duplex is very spacious and the high ceilings make it seem even bigger. The separate kitchen is also very spacious

Because of the many windows it has a lot of day light. It comes fully furnished and with a fully fitted kitchen and many extras like a pellet burner

There are no monthly community fees because the property is independent. Villaricos is well know for it's weekly Sunday market with the freshest fruits and vegetables

This duplex is a true opportunity for those that seek to live in Villaricos and a viewing is highly recommended
